The Players' Anthem

In the trees along the shoreline
At the bottom of a hill
There's a place I keep my heart in
And I know I always will

In the hottest days of summer
And the coldest of the fall
I'll keep hearing in the distance
The old trooper's call

Peninsula Players
My home up by the bay
Oh I'll come and go to do the shows
But my heart will always stay

When the final curtain closes
On the last act of my life
I'll come back to be a Player
In the soft Door County nights

Peninsula Players
My home up by the bay
Oh I'll come and go to do the shows
But my heart will always stay

The land has its beauty
And the stage calls to me
But the heart and the soul is
This fine company

Peninsula Players
My home up by the bay
Oh I'll come and go to do the shows
But my heart will always stay

Repeat and out

Joe Huppert
23 July 2006