

June 17 – July 6

Barefoot in the Park

By Neil Simon

A classic comedy brimming with love and laughter. Carefree Corie and pragmatic Paul are newlyweds who are hilariously navigating life in their quirky first apartment. While Paul worries over the lack of heat and a hole in the skylight, Corie longs to run barefoot in the park. Toss in an anxious mother-in-law and an eccentric neighbor, and laughs abound! Simon's trademark wit and humor shine in this warm-hearted comedy where we see what people will do when taken out of their comfort zones.

July 9 – July 27

Misery

By William Goldman

Based on the novel by Stephen King

A captivating thriller that grips you until the very end. After a car accident, successful novelist Paul Sheldon wakes up in the home of Annie Wilkes, his "number one fan." Discovering that Paul has killed off her favorite character (Misery Chastain), Annie tries to coax him into writing a new novel to bring her back. Frightened he may be more prisoner than patient, Paul writes as if his life depends on it - and perhaps it does. (Recommended for ages 13+)

July 30 – August 17

Little Women

The Broadway Musical

Book by Allan Knee, Music by Jason Howland, Lyrics by Mindi Dickstein

Based on the novel by Louisa May Alcott

A timeless tale of family, romance and following your dreams. Adapted from Louisa May Alcott's beloved novel, Little Women is a delightful musical with soaring melodies and sweeping emotions. The story of the March sisters is told through the eyes of Jo, an aspiring writer, who entertains and uplifts the family with melodramatic stories of heroes and peril. Jo, Meg, Beth and Amy take care of one another while finding their own voices and charting their own paths in this timeless story of love, loss, discovery and hope.

August 20 – August 31

Ken Ludwig's Dear Jack, Dear Louise

A joyous story of a heartwarming courtship. This amusing and poignant love story is based on the real-life courtship of Ludwig's parents. Shy and steady, Jack is a military doctor stationed far from home. Nudged by his matchmaking parents, he strikes up a correspondence with the outgoing Louise, an aspiring singer and dancer living in Manhattan. The unlikely pair quickly take to each other, and through their witty and deeply personal letters their connection blossoms, overcoming the distance between them.

September 3 – October 19

Steel Magnolias

By Robert Harling

A hilarious celebration of friendship, heartache and hairdos! This beloved and moving comedy chronicles the lives and friendships of six marvelously different women who support each other through triumphs and tragedies. They congregate every Saturday at Truvy's beauty shop to ponder the mysteries of life and death, husbands and children - and hair and nails! Through their witty banter and plenty of ribbing, the women form bonds as strong as steel and friendships that feel like family.

CURTAIN TIMES: June 17 through August 30: Tuesday – Saturday at 8:00 p.m.; Sundays at 7:30 p.m.*

September 3 through October 18: Tuesday – Sunday at 7:00 p.m.* Closed on Mondays

Except July 6, July 27, Aug. 17 and 31, Oct. 19 at 2:00 p.m. Additional Autumn Matinees TBA

Ticket prices for plays: $51, $53 & $56 Ticket prices for musicals: $54, $56 & $59

Season, Student and Group Rates are Available