

Our 91st Season
June 16 - October 18
2026

June 16 - July 5

Baggage

by Sam Bobrick

A quirky, mismatched romantic comedy

Two single people, disillusioned and trying to heal from disappointing relationships, are brought together when their luggage is mixed up at the airport. They decide to forge a friendship - perhaps to mend their hearts, improve future relationships, or maybe even to spare anyone else from being stuck with them. Encouraged by a free-spirited best friend and discouraged by a self-proclaimed expert counselor, will the couple get beyond their baggage and make a real connection?

July 8 - July 26

The Mousetrap

by Agatha Christie

A classic mystery full of humor, intrigue, and thrills

As news spreads of a local murder, seven strangers find themselves snowed in at a secluded guesthouse, trapped with nowhere to hide. A police sergeant arrives with news suggesting the killer is among them. Everyone is a suspect as secrets unravel and pasts get exposed. Who's the murderer, and who could be next? Agatha Christie's highly acclaimed murder mystery is the world's longest running play, captivating audiences with laughs, surprises, and suspense.

July 29 - August 16

Ring of Fire

The Music of Johnny Cash created by Richard Maltby, Jr.

A delightful musical tribute to The Man in Black

The remarkable life story of Johnny Cash - one of the most revered storytellers in American music - is told through his iconic songbook. From country to rock 'n' roll to searing ballads of love and faith, this theatrical and musical experience showcases the journey of the beloved legend. An incredible group of actor-musicians celebrate the man and the music with such hits as "I Walk the Line," "I've Been Everywhere," "Folsom Prison Blues," and, of course, "Ring of Fire."

August 19 - September 6

Moon Over Buffalo

by Ken Ludwig

A hilarious screwball comedy

George and Charlotte Hay were once celebrated stage actors, but now their careers are waning, and their relationship is falling apart due to George's wandering eye. When they receive word that a Hollywood director is coming to their matinee, they realize they might have one more shot at success. But with unexpected backstage guests, missing actors, and confusion about what play they are actually performing, everything that could go wrong, does.

September 9 - October 18

Murder Girl

by Heidi Armbruster

A funny and thrilling Wisconsin whodunnit

At Marty's Supper Club in the Northwoods of Wisconsin, the Old Fashioneds are mixed, the Packer game is on, and the secrets run deep. Twins Eric and LeeAnn are trying to keep the business alive when a shocking revelation from one of their employees sparks new questions about a missing girl and a past that refuses to stay buried. Full of suspense, small-town gossip, and Midwestern heart, this sharply funny mystery will have everyone guessing until the final moments.